The UCLA Alumni Mentor Program enables alumni and students to form meaningful connections. These connections help prepare students for a successful future and leave a lasting impact on our campus community. Alumni Mentors can provide students with academic guidance, career advice and personal development throughout the quarter. We encourage mentors and students to connect on a regular basis (at minimum once a month phone call, video meeting, or email conversation). However, the frequency and form of communication are up to each pair. Program resources include a monthly newsletter with discussion topics, mentor/student spotlights, and other resources to guide you throughout the quarter.

Mentorship Agreement

Mentor: ___________________________  Student: ___________________________
Email: ___________________________  Email: ___________________________
Phone: ___________________________  Phone: ___________________________

Meeting frequency, duration, and form of communication:

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Goals and objectives of this mentorship:

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

Brainstorm opportunities and experiences to enhance learning (ex: mock interview, resume critique, job shadow):

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

We both commit to the mission and guidelines of the UCLA Alumni Mentor Program and look forward to building a successful mentorship.

Keep this agreement for your records. Refer back to it throughout the mentorship. Mid-way through the program, we will ask you to revisit the agreement to reevaluate the goals and objectives you’ve both set for this mentorship.